

The screenshot shows the FAFSA website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the FAFSA logo and the text "Free Application for Federal Student Aid". Below this is a search bar and navigation links for "Contact Us" and "Browse Help". A horizontal menu contains several tabs: "Student Demographics", "School Selection", "Dependency Status", "Parent Demographics", "Financial Information" (which is highlighted), "Sign & Submit", and "Confirmation".

The main content area is titled "Student Tax Information". It features a green notification box at the top stating "Application was successfully saved." Below this, a dropdown menu asks "For 2011, have you completed your IRS income tax return or another tax return?" and is set to "Already completed".

A section titled "You may be able to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool to view and transfer your tax information from the IRS." contains a list of checkboxes:

- I filed an amended tax return
- I filed a Puerto Rican or foreign tax return
- I recently filed my taxes
- None of the above

Below the checkboxes, a text box states: "Based on your response, we recommend that you transfer your information from the IRS into this FAFSA. Enter your PIN and click Link To IRS." This is followed by a PIN input field and a "LINK TO IRS" button.

On the right side, there is a "Help and Hints" sidebar with a scrollable area. The visible text includes:

- None of the above
- Under certain conditions, students are not eligible to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, which allows users to link to the IRS Web site and securely transfer IRS tax return information into their FAFSA. If you meet any of these conditions, you will not be presented with the option to link to the IRS.
- Select the check boxes that describe your (and if married, your spouse's) tax filing status, or select None of the Above.
- Select My tax filing status is Married Filing Separately if you are married, but you and your spouse filed separate tax returns. Married

Once you get to the Financial Information section of your FAFSA you will want to selected “Already Completed”.

Then you will want to select “None of the above”.

You should now see a LINK TO IRS box.

Based on your response, we recommend that you transfer your information from the IRS into this FAFSA.

Enter your PIN and click Link To IRS.

What is your PIN?
